NT temperament

The main thing for me is development of thinking. I collect data consisting of abstractions and possibilities and use them to initiate an objective decision-making process.

Management

I create an atmosphere and value system, determine the course an organization should follow, use software as a tool, and think and work creatively.

Behavioral model

Professional discussion of strengths and weaknesses after work completion by the team.

Cake

One of my favorite desserts is the Napoleon cake. I like going to cafés for a good mood.

Mind map

My creative work involves making a mind map where I focus on both the process and result to immediately see the big picture when setting a challenge and arrive at an objective decision.

Idea and attitude to power

Understand and contribute to the concept, propose a model, influence the future.

Fashion

I choose comfortable I'm accustomed to. When shopping, I consider price and durability.

Money

To see more and further ahead, I created a trading bot to read prices and place effective orders on the exchange according to the algorithm.

Science and technology creativity

I enjoy setting IT challenges for myself. I'm happy to solve them while creating code in an IDE and get an engineering solution in the form of a program and device.

How I spend my day

I seek to make my day interesting and memorable with accomplished work, pleasant communication, and good mood.

Love

I enjoy the communication, relationships come along to develop, things are working out better.
